The Great Do Glas Monument.—The people of Chicago are preparing for the laying of the corner-stone of the Douglas mounment in that city, soon after the adjournment of Cougress. This mounment is to have a base 50 feet high, a shaft of 40 feet, and a statue of 10 feet surmounting the whole. It is to be composed of white limestone, and when completed will somewhat resemble General Brock's monument on Queenstown Heights, near the Niagara niver. There is a large attendance anticipated at Chicago at the laying of the corner-stone, and the oration will probably be delivered by Secretary Seward. The President has also, it is said, signified his intention of being present.

The Houston Telegraph says the colored For a grand reception.
